Dear David

LAURA WALKER.

I write to advise that I do not want this nutcase staring at me in the street.

She passed me in Douglas St yesterday and repeatedly stared.

I know she is galactically stupid and she has similarly harrassed

Catherine Wray but I can tell you right here and now I shall not be tolerating this.

I would also advise I do not wish herself or her husband to make nuisances of themselves around me or any of my circle at the Labour Party conference this year.

It is of course very ^{un}likely that the wife battering M.P. will be resecⁿ ected since many in his constituency regard him as little short of a gangster.

I hope this is noted

YOURS SINCERELY

FIONA HARVEY.
